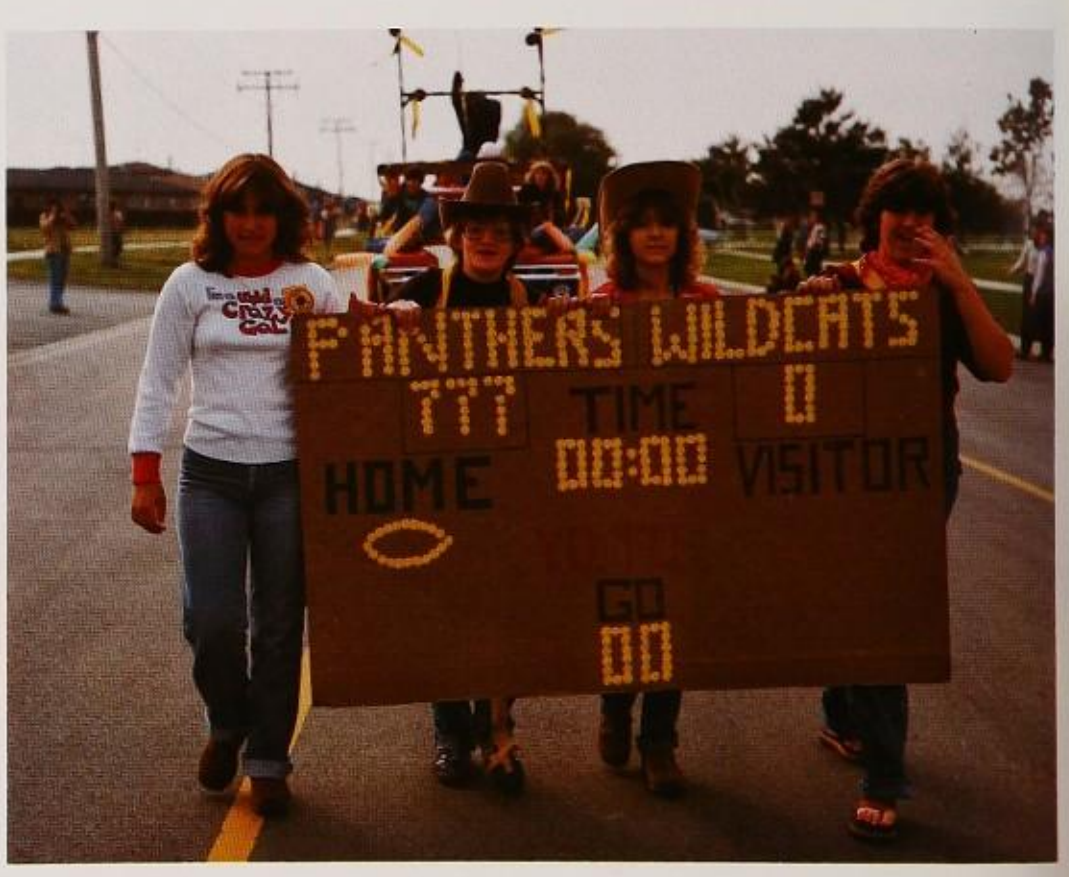
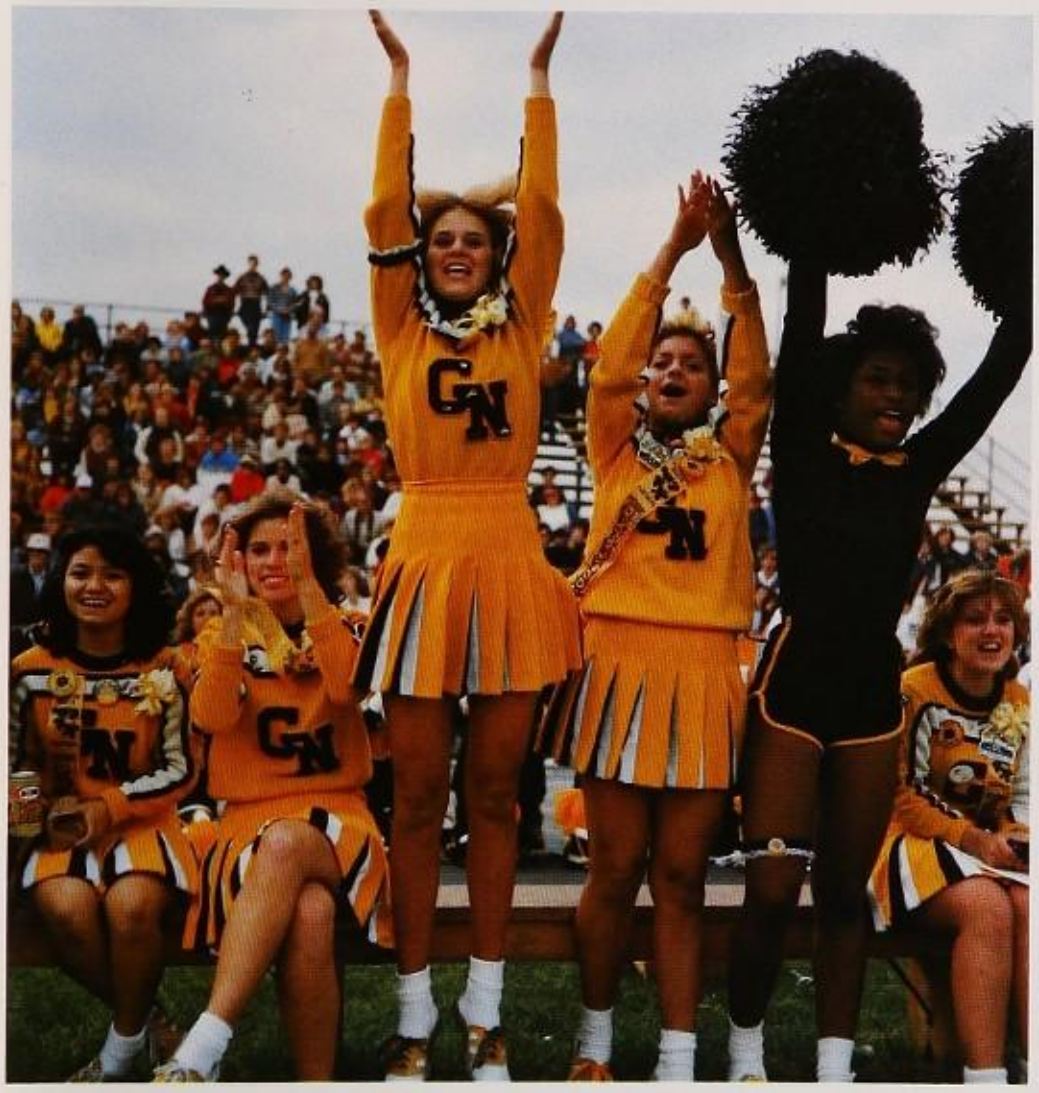
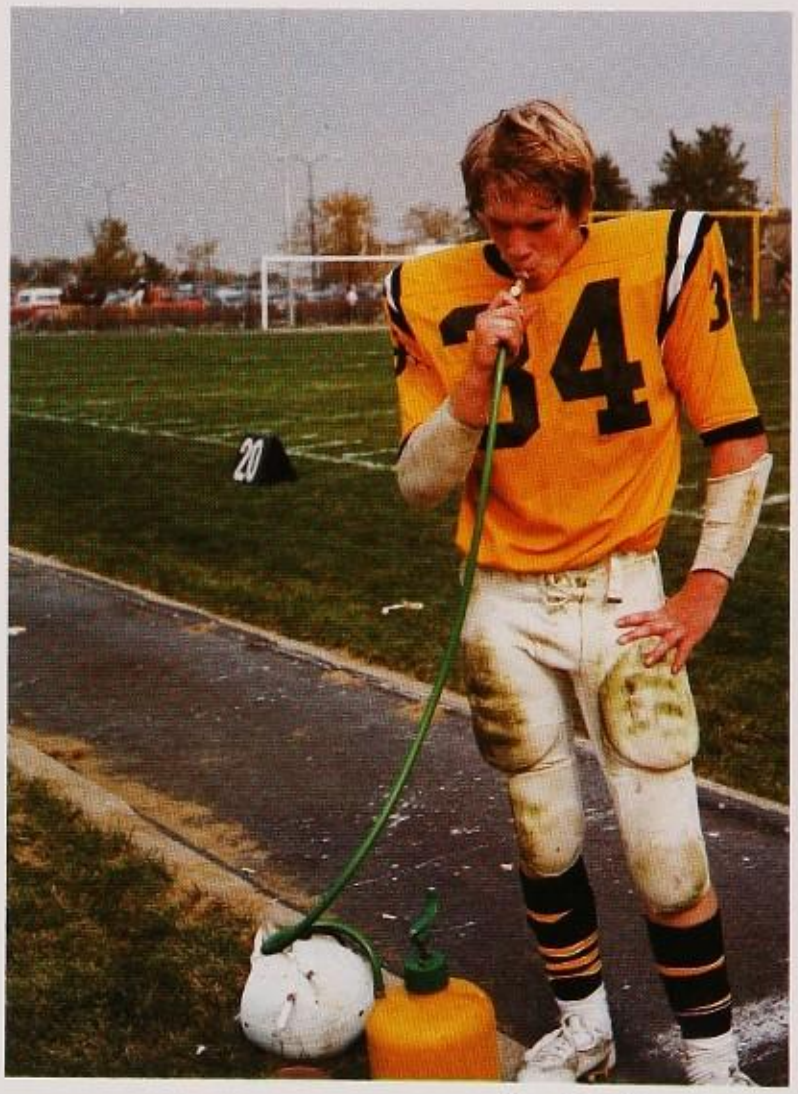
HOMECOMING

On October 9, 1981, the Glenbard North student body gather together to form an exceptionally large crowd for a bonfire, not to mention the burning of an effigy of the West Chicago team. The light of the bonfire flickered over the anxious faces that were awaiting the big game the next day. After the bonfire, a concert was held at the auditorium by Chicago-area rock band "Freewheelin". During the concert, Armando Nunez and Tammy Goro were announced as Homecoming King and Queen. Even though the idea of having a concert was new this year, there was a large number of students in attendance.

After the parade the following day, the Panthers suffered another loss during a homecoming football game. They started the game with a quick first-quarter touchdown on a 14-yard run by Tony Lisbon. The Panthers held an early 8-0 lead after a two-point conversion pass from Jeff Pieper to Mark Hrgich. In the second quarter, they ended their last major offensive drive when Pieper's pass was intercepted by the Wildcats. They lost 21-8 amidst the disappointment of many. Despite the loss, all of Glenbard North had a wonderful homecoming weekend.







Lenor,
Sure enjoy knowing you ya about 20 years. It sure doesn't seem long. You're always up to no good. Thanx sweet to me.

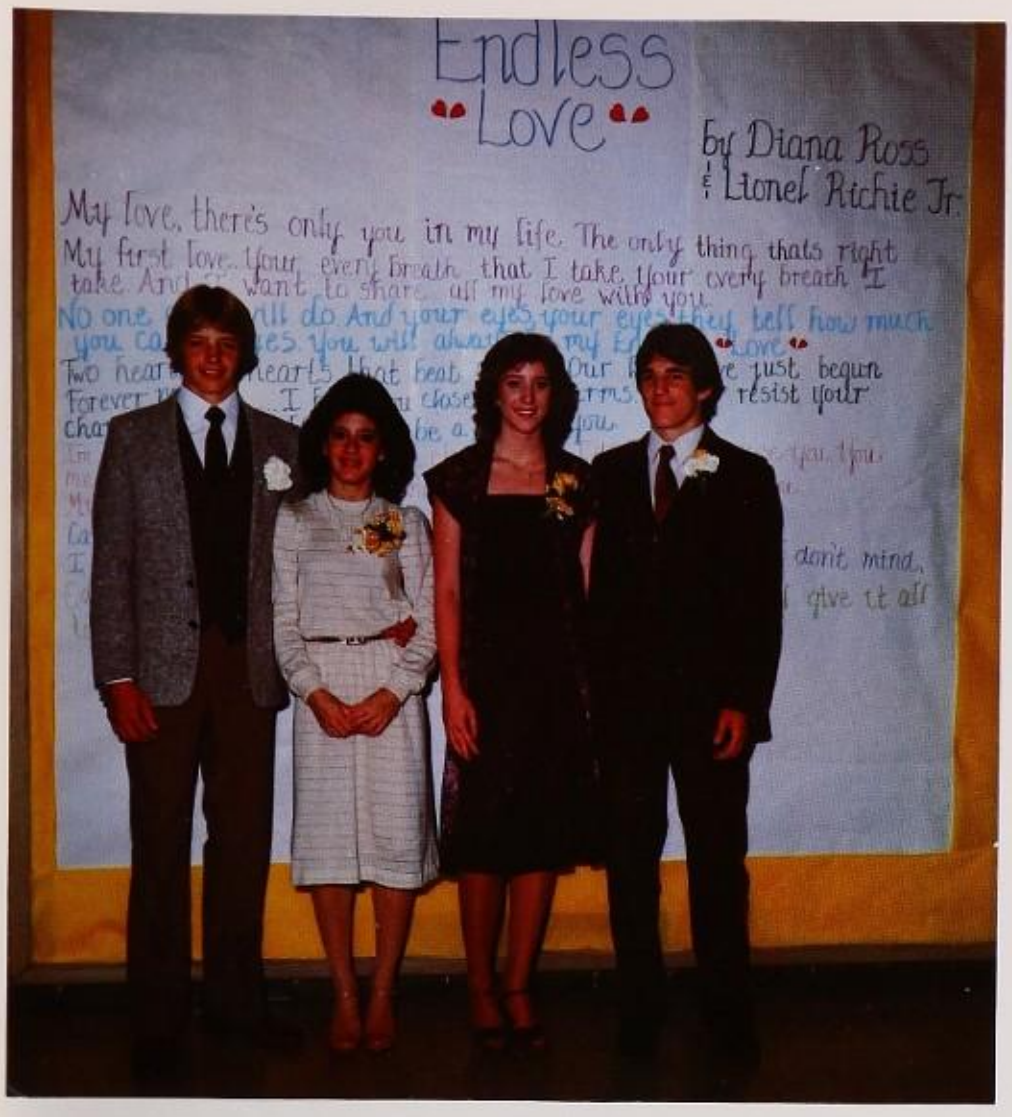
HOMECOMING DANCE

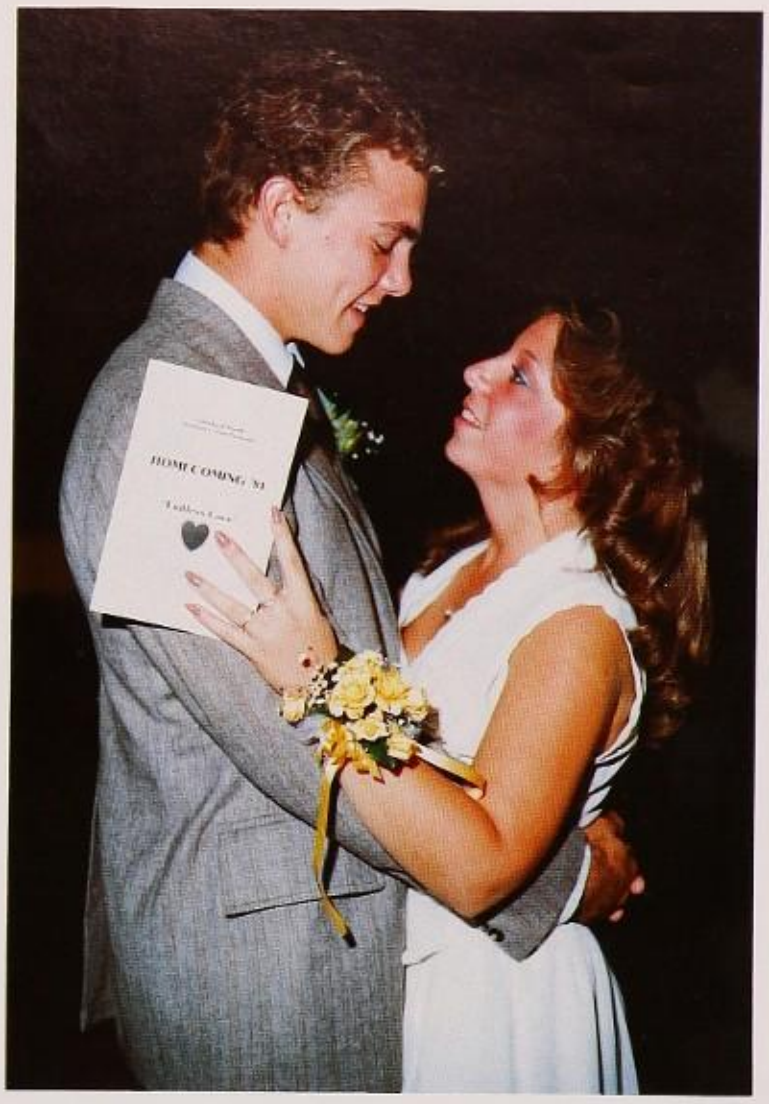
Homecoming Court: Connie Timeon, Anthony Sanporo, Sherie Palmer, Dan Young, Queen Tammy Goro, King Armando Nunez, Andrea Huslander, Mark Hrgich, Naomi Bender, Dean Hejza.

Among the many activities going on during homecoming weekend, the traditinal dance had always been successful; this year was no exception.

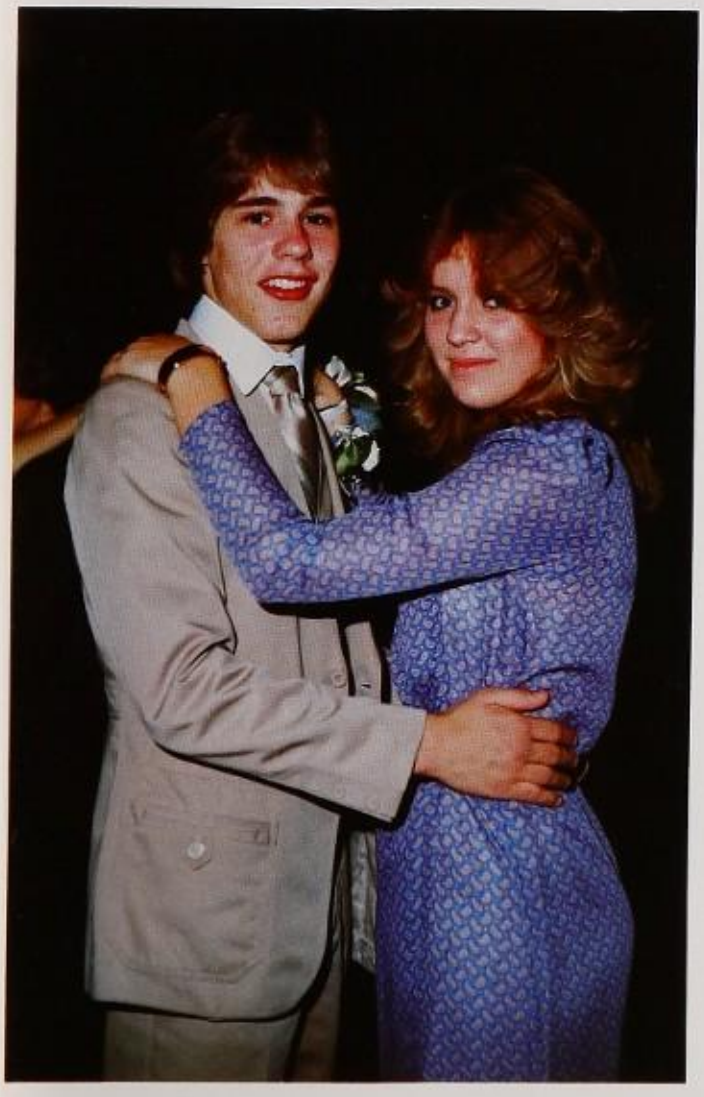
A large number of Glenbard North students turned out on Saturday evening, October 10, to celebrate this year's "Endless Love" theme. The featured band, "Chaos," was a great asset to the dance and greatly contributed to the festive mood. The homecoming court consisted of: Queen Tammy Goro, King Armando Nunez, Naomi Bender and Dean Hejza (senior representatives), Andrea Huslander and Mark Hrgich (junior representatives), Dan Young and Sherie Palmer (sophomore representatives), and Anthony Sanporo and Connie Timeon (freshman representatives).

Student Union, which has sponsored the dance during the past years, proved another evening as most fulfulling.





ENDLESS LOVE



HALLOWEEN

This year the halloween fever at Glenbard North was as hot as ever. Every room looked like it was being invaded by colorful witches, space creatures, clowns, monsters and anything that sparks the imagination. Probably the biggest invasion was the punk invasion. There were outrageous bodies walking around in striking pink pants with orange hair and dark glasses. Harem ladies were seen loose in the halls looking, but they were just looking around. Apeman kept running into people and scaring their pants off. Even "babies" were seen roaming the halls as if they were relieved to have, in fact, lost their parents on this exceptionally lunatic day. Anyway, the events of the day and the school spirit shown by the students were very much appreciated by everyone who both did and did not participate in this extraordinarily exciting and punky halloween.

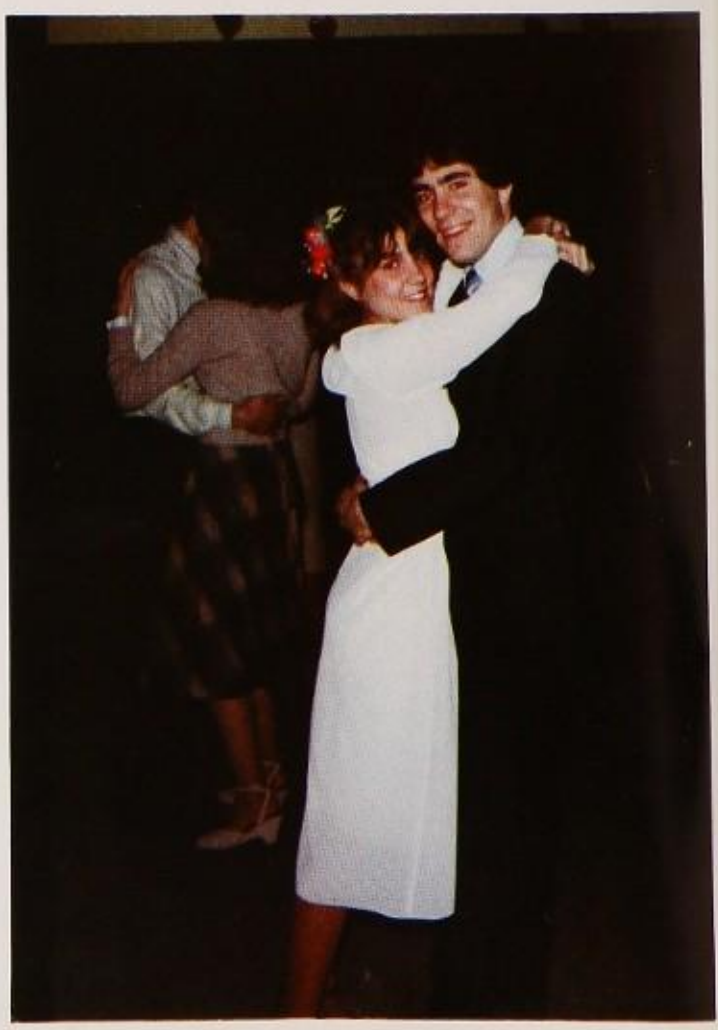
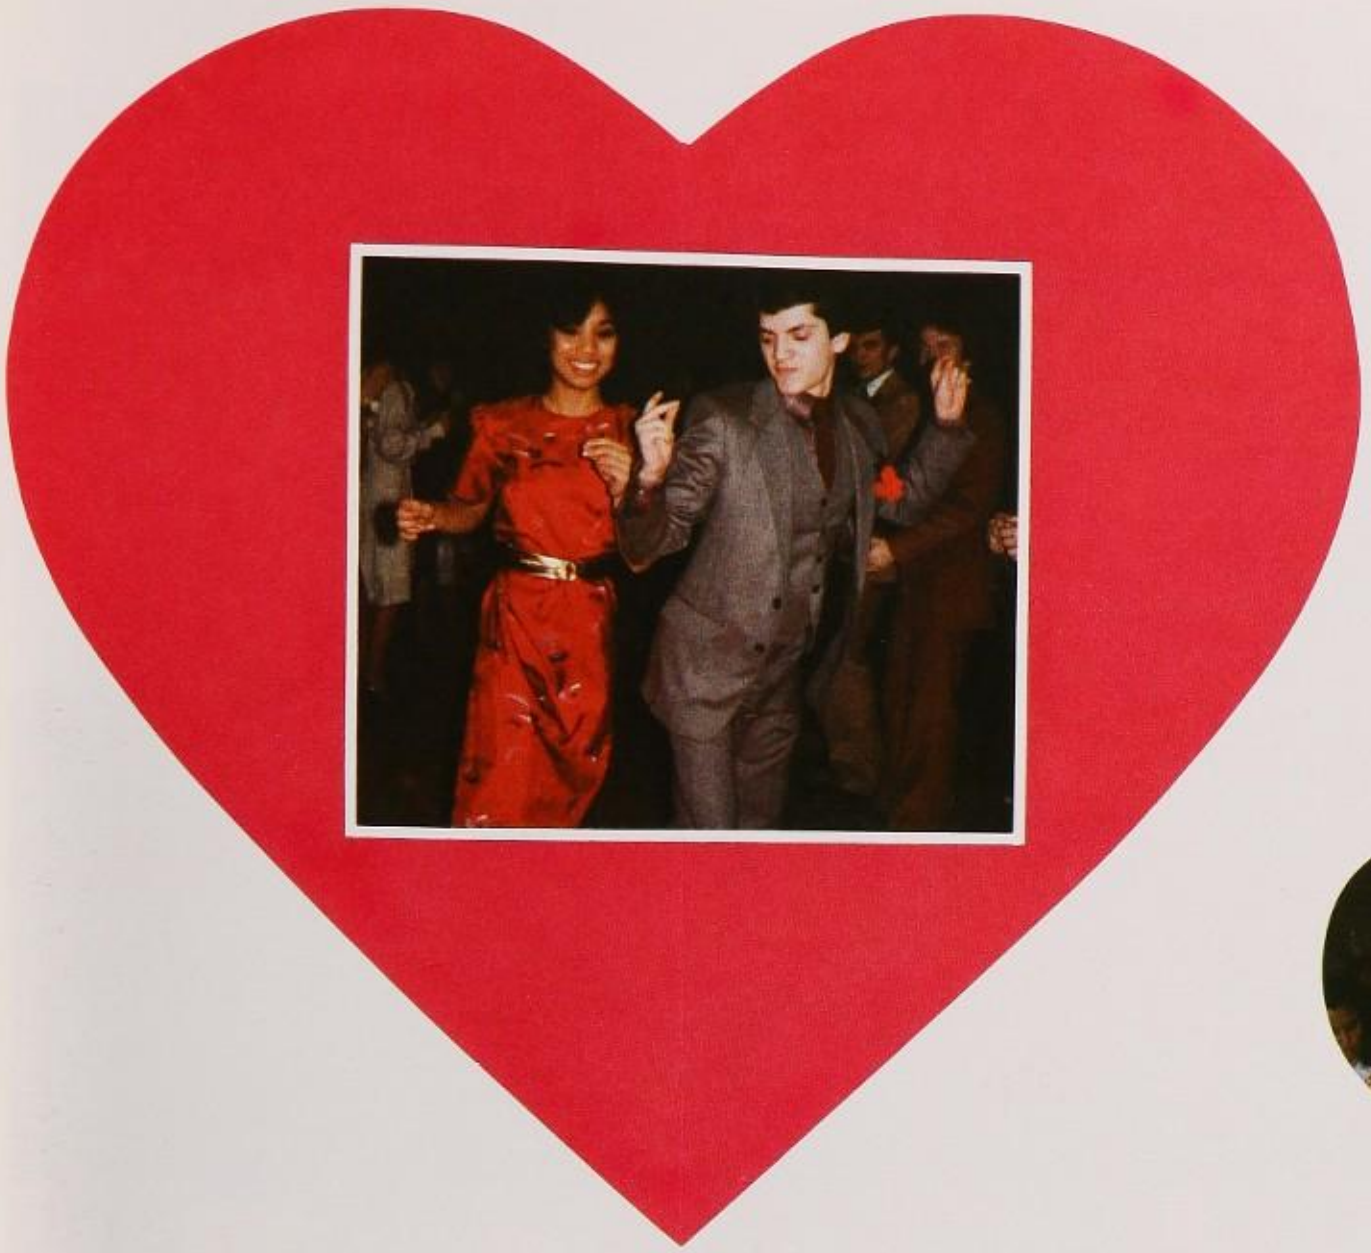
TURNABOUT A GREAT SUCCESS!

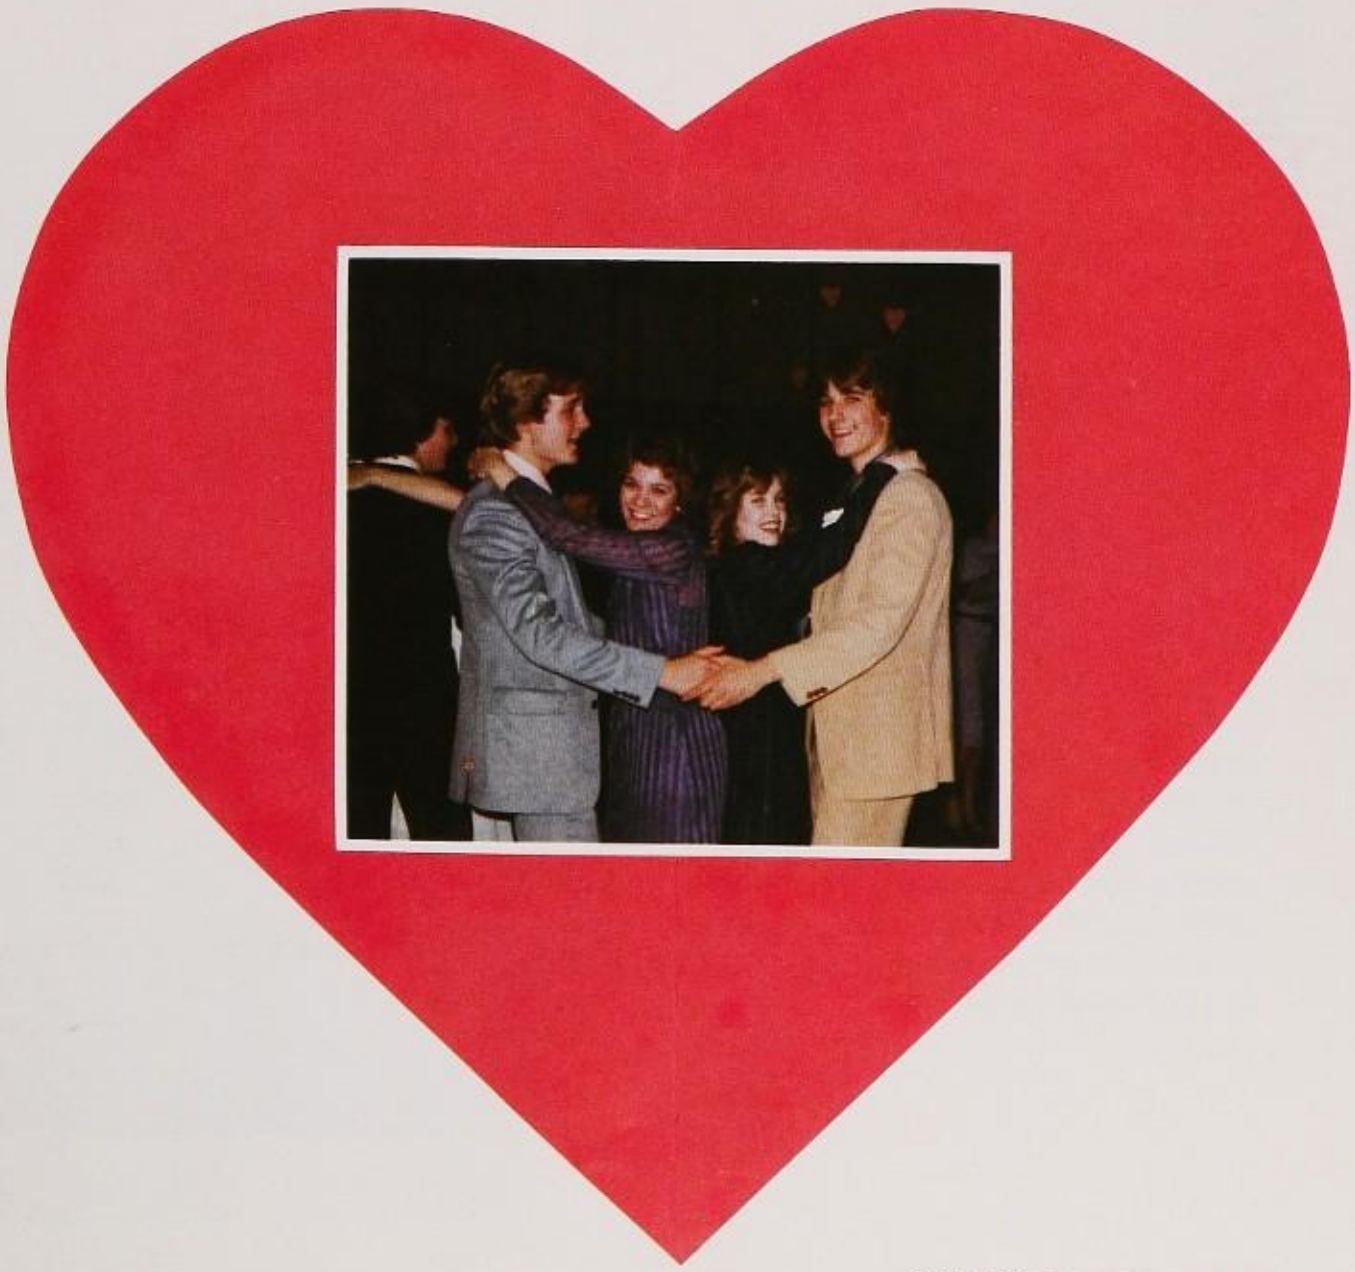
The senior class sponsored the Sweetheart Turnabout dance last February 11, 1982. The dance was a tremendous hit with the G.N. student body. A huge crowd of over 200 people gathered together to celebrate Valentines Day.

The featured band, "Horizons," was exceptionally good and kept everybody dancing till the very last minutes of the dance. This great evening was highlighted by the announcement of the court composed of six senior girls and representatives from the junior and sophomore years. The event's success was the first in recent years.

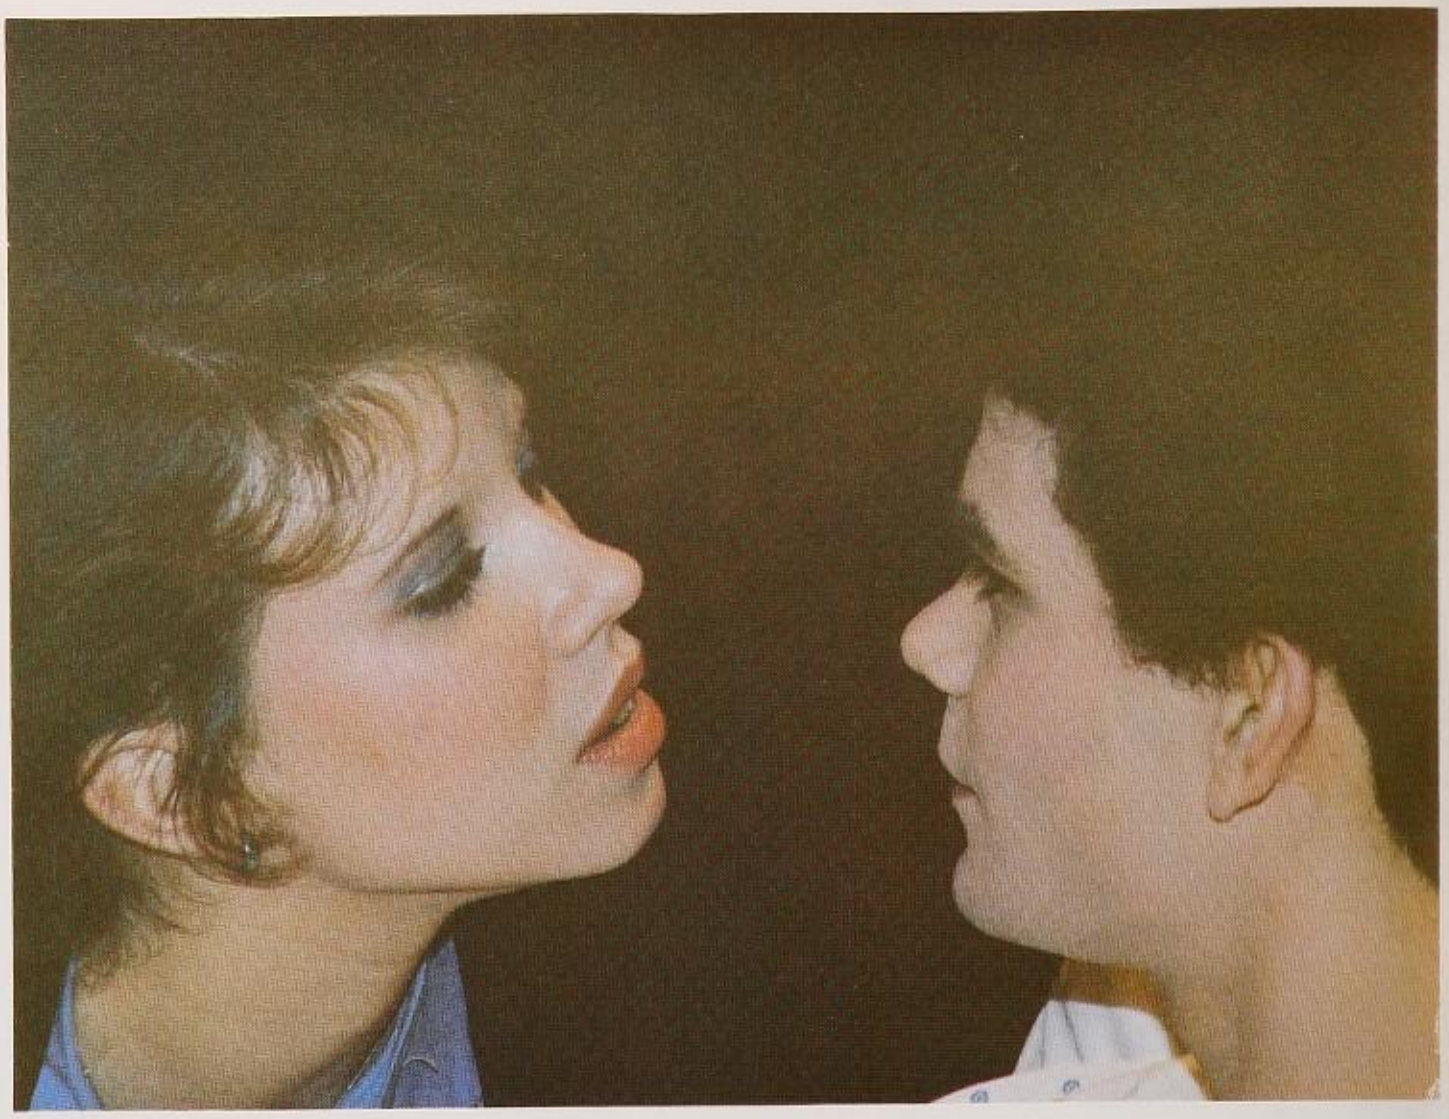
The dance was just one reflection of how G.N. students get together and have fun.



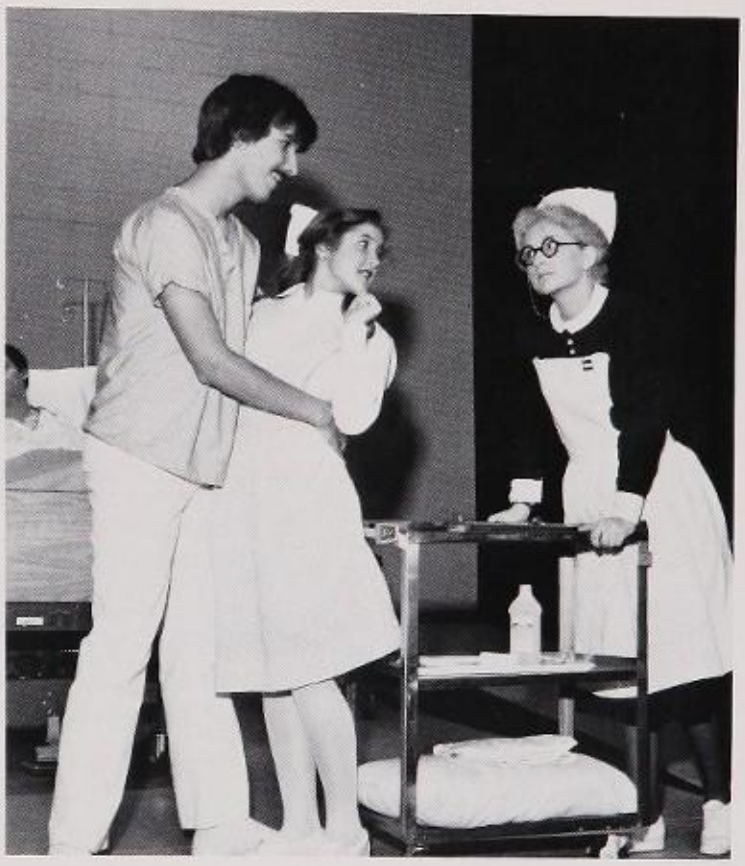




WHOSE LIFE IS IT ANYWAY



"Whose Life Is It Anyway" was a comedy-drama written by Brian Clark. It proved to be a rewarding production here at G.N. last fall. The action took place in a modern day hospital ward. Ken Harrison, played by Mark Tenuta, was faced with the bitter strugle of his depressing condition; he was paralyzed from the neck down after an automobiel accident. After careful consideration, Harrison calmly and sanely decided that he wanted to end his life. This decision caused a direct conflict between his doctors: Michael Emerson (Rick Gieser) who felt that a doctor should be dedicated to the survival of a human being and Clare Scott (Donna Zajac) who believed that the patient should be able to rationally decide for himself. The play ended with a grueling court scene inside the hospital where Justice Millhouse (Rick Ruelas) grants Ken Harrison the right to choose between life and death. Harrison, of course, chose the latter. "Whose Life . . ." was a production which excelled in all areas of the theatre, and the Speech Arts Department of Glenbard North should be commended for its meritorious achievements.



Variety Show

Gitarzan and his Jungle Band

The sixth annual O.E.A. Variety Show was held last March 4 and 6 at 7:30 p.m. This was the first year that the show ran for two nights. Each night featured different shows. Ten acts performed both nights along with ten different acts each night. There was a variety of acts including dancing, singing, rock bands and comedy skits.

The biggest success was the tarzan-jungle act with Vicki Dukes and the rest of the Junior leaders. Some of the students surprised everyone with their talent in dancing, among which included the hawaiian dances performed by Lalaine Vitug, Gina Villanueva and Cindy Cerrudo. Comic fillers were done by resident thespians Rick Gieser, Marc Hansen, Heidi Cherim and Dawn Losek., The show also had its own version of the popular Solid Gold dancers which included Deanna Palazzo, Priscilla Banquero and Linda Anderson who provided for the fillers in between acts.

The show was again another hit. Both nights were sold out. Under the supervision of Mr. Depa, G.N. students displayed tremendous potential in the entertainment field. They not only displayed a great deal of talent but a great deal of showmanship as well.

BLEACHER BUMS

The Drama Department presented "Bleacher Bums," a comedy in nine innings by the Organic Theatre Company featuring baseball at its best. The play was a unique comedy in that the action of the ball game mirrored the antics of the fans in the left field stands. The fans, commonly called bleacher bums, revealed to the audience not only the basic theme of the play but the emotional highpoints of the play as well. As the play reached its finish, there was that realization that to hope and dream was no offense but merely a natural motivation in life.

The Cubs did come up as losers in this comedy, but the audience did not. They were treated to a rare fun-filled evening at Wrigley Field. The Drama Department definitely struck a home run in this inning hopefully to continue their winning streak in productions to come.

Orchesis presented its annual show entitled "Dance Into the Night" on March 11 and 12 in the Little Theatre. The group, which was composed of about 60 girls and boys from the junior and senior class, took a field trip prior to the show in order to provide a sneak preview to the public. Besides the junior high schools visited, Applewood Manor, a home for the aged, was also visited. Much to the delight of the senior citizens, the group presented a variety of dances including variations in ballet, jazz, tap and oriental dances. After two successful show nights, each member had a chance to vote for deserving individuals in different categories. According to Orchesis advisor and coordinator, Ms. Julie Stoerger, this year was yet the best year the class ever had. To many of the people who saw the show, the group deserved every inch of credit for the effort they put forth.

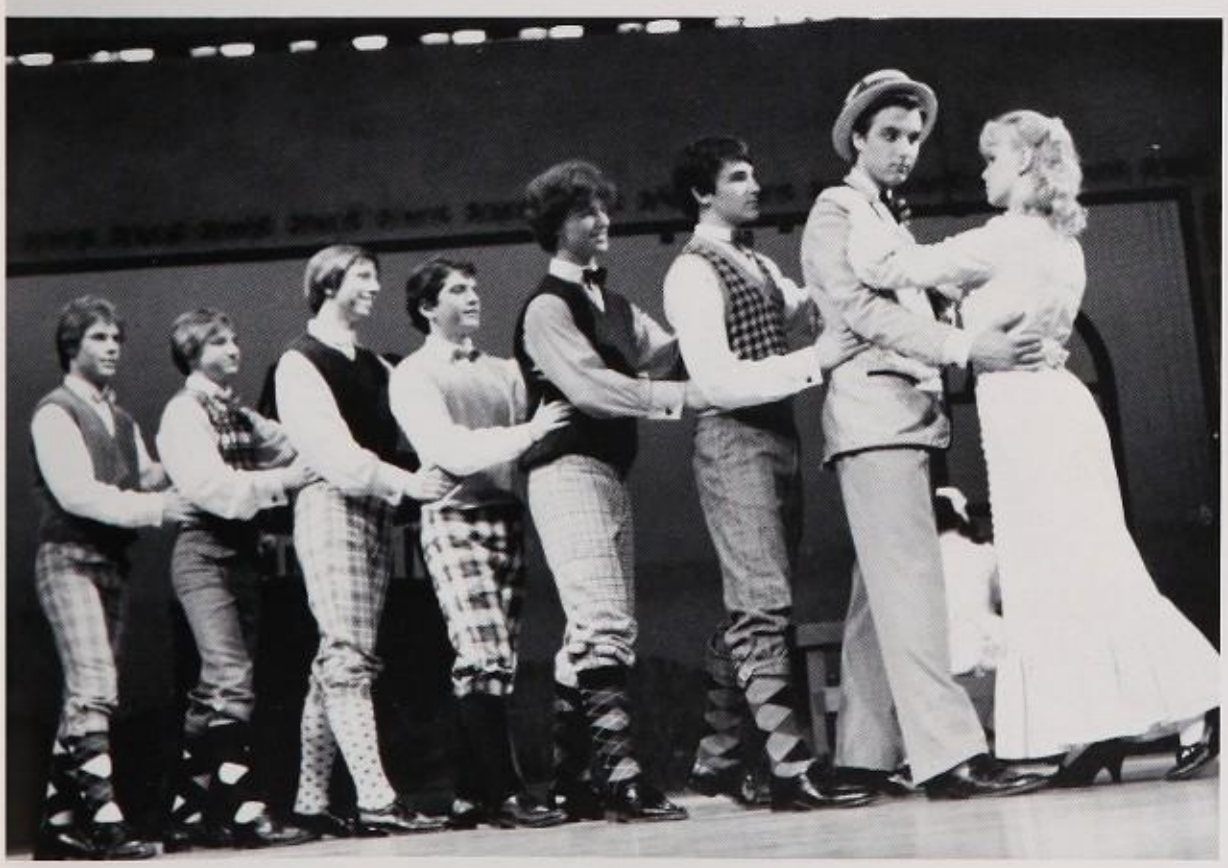
The Music Man

Once again the Speech Arts Department teamed up with the Music Department to produce another musical. This year's biggest show, "The Music Man," was a genial cartoon translation of American life by Meredith Willson. With fine performances in acting, singing and dancing, "The Music Man" proved to be irresistably charming for all theatregoers. In fact, the show received standing ovations on all three nights it was performed. This was a credit to all who participated and helped to strengthen G.N.'s fine theatre tradition.



N.H.S. CHAPTER CANDIDATES INDUCTED

On April 28, the National Honor Society of Glenbard North hosted the Induction Ceremony for the Juniors and Seniors who, through character, leadership and scholarship, have become eligible for membership into the Chapter.

The inductees from the Junior Class included Deidre Adams, Renato Amador, Rosemarie Andres, Lisa Athinakis, Dawn Aultman, Glenn Balog, Lisa Bednar, Gaurang Bhatt, George Checinski, Joe Chojnacki, Jeff Christensen, Wuyi Chua, Mark Dahlman, Chris Dall, Doug DeCanio, Vickie Dukes, Jon Egan, Kris Eighnor, Patricia Faxel, Patricia Frey, Wendy Fulk, Julie Headlee, Andrea Hulslander, Vincent Kacick, Emmrich, Knoebl, Maria Kopriva, Jeff Laschinski, Linda LeChevalier, Elisabeth Longoria, Diane Marabotti, James McGlynn, Cathy McGrillen, Jennifer Meyer, Jacqueline Moore, Barbie Osgood, Sharon Peterson, Christine Ryan, Sumeet Sachdev, David Slinkman, Jeanine Stanton, Debra Tanner, Cindy Tate, Charles Trott, Gina Villanueva, and Lalaine Vitug.

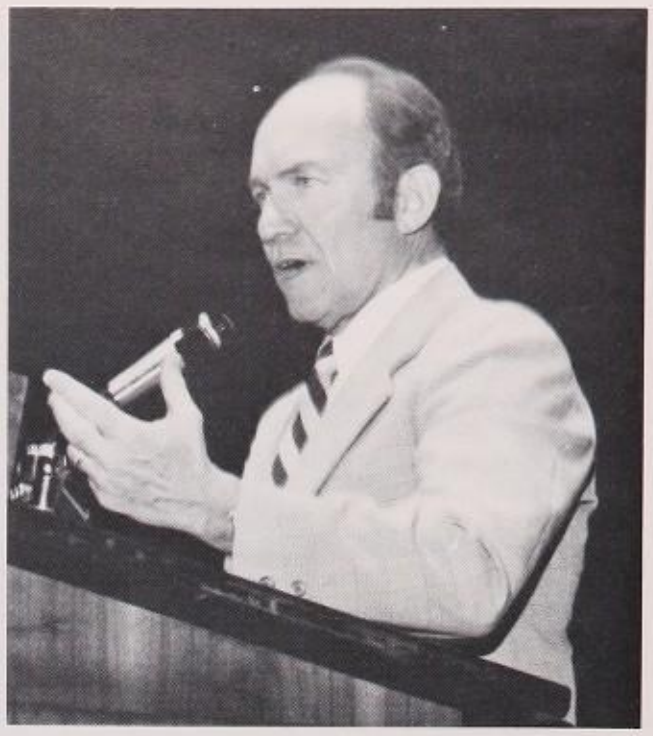
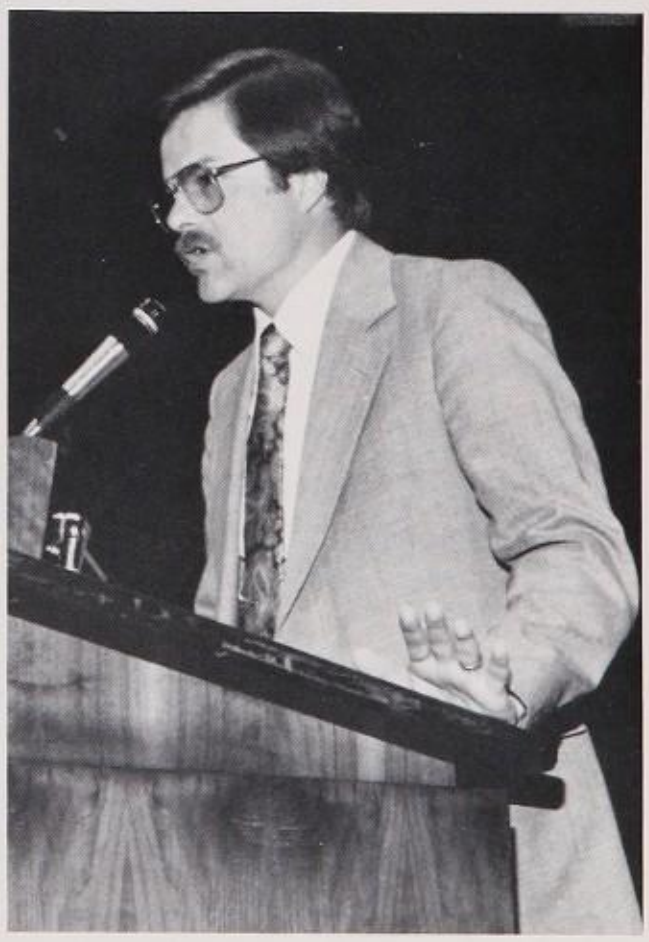
The featured speaker for the night was Mrs. Bardeen, School Board President, and NHS band members played selected songs as entertainment.





HONORS NIGHT

During the eleventh annual Glenbard North Scholarship and Awards program, many outstanding and deserving students were honored by the recognition of their accomplishments and by the awarding of scholarships. In the beginning of the program, Sue Erriechiello, incumbent president of the student body, led everyone with the recital of the Pledge of Allegiance which was followed by Mr. Wayne Stevenson and his Introduction to the Awards Program. After the presentation of all the awards, the Smothers Brothers, which is composed of Curt Czapski and Jim Grillo, entertained the audience with their rendition of mellow songs. This night was very special for most of the awardees in that after four long years of struggles and breathless work they could finally give a sigh of relief and contentment. The 1982 season was highly successful for the girls cross country team. Although the sport was relatively new for the girls division here at North, the record proved otherwise in this second year of formal competition. A record of 20 girls participated. Led by Tina Anderson, Holly Atkinson, Sue Mitchell and Nerry Alcock, Glenbard North took a giant step towards respectability. Next year would promise to be even more successful as underclassmen Janet Trott, Terri Pierson, Lori Branick and Cheryl Carlson lead 15 returning experienced runners.

THE 1982 FIGHTING PANTHERS

The 1981-82 Panthers ended their season on a very successful note. By defeating Wheaton Central 7-6 in the final game, the varsity capped a four game winning streak ending the season with a 5-4 record and a third place finish in the tough DuPage Valley Conference. Two of the Panthers' four loses came at the hands of Wheaton North, Class 4A Champions, and Naperville Central, semi-finalists in the 6A division. This group was a senior dominated team with several outstanding underclassmen. Tony Savegnago, a sophomore, and Tony Lisbon, a junior, both had an outstanding year and both were selected to the All-Conference Team. The defense team did an outstanding job all year, and it was seniors Dan Dwyer, Jerry Campbell, Mark Yeary, Dave Merbach, Tom Bates and Jim Hoffman who were the backbone of the defense unit. On offense, it was Jeff Pieper passing and Tony Lisbon running. On the receiving end of Pieper's passes were seniors Dan Dwyer, Charlie Adkins and junior Jeff Laschinski. Making both the running and passing possible were senior linemen Todd Fulk, Tom Bates, Jim Hoffman, Chuck Tucek and Dave Merbach.

Our captains this year were Dave Merbach, Jeff Pieper and Jim Hoffman. In addition to All-Conference Honors for Savegnago and Lisbon, the following individuals received honorable mention All-Conference Honors: Tom Bates, Dan Dwyer, Todd Fulk, Jerry Campbell, Jeff Pieper, Dave Merbach, Jeff Laschinski and Mark Yeary.

The prospects for the next season would appear to be very good with the return of Savegnago and Lisbon. Jeff Laschinski who saw action at both tight end and safety would figure prominently in next year's plan, so would Rob Tyner, Dave Slinkman, Chris Ratliff and Mark Kedziora, all returning starters.

The Panther Varsity Volleyball Team ended their season with a conference record of 10-4, which resulted in a third place finish in the DuPage Valley Conference. The girls also took second at the Bloom Tournament and second at their own Invitational. The season ended on a high note when the girls won the St. Charles District Tournament.

The Junior Varsity Team also had a very successful year. They ended the season with a 17-1 record. They were 13-1 in the DuPage Valley Conference and tied for first place.

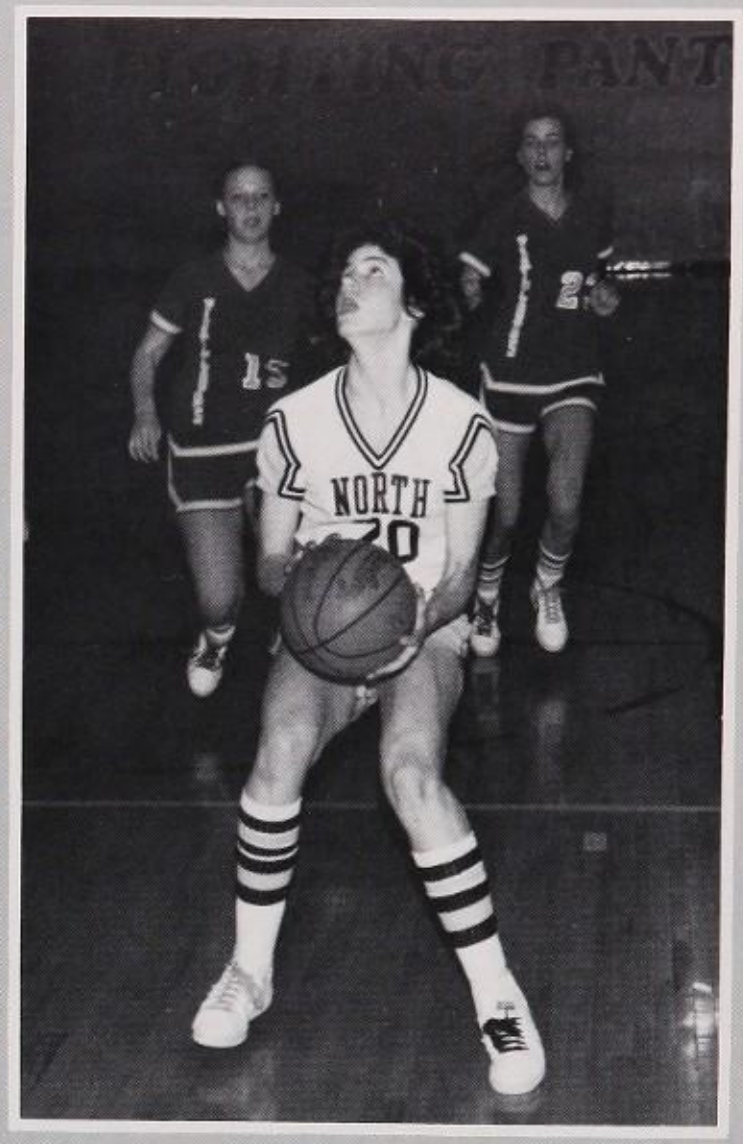
Girl's Basketball



The girls varsity basketball team had more experience this year more than other year. Of the senior girls on the team, Kay Moses and Carol Blewett were the only returning varsity players. The rest of the seniors, Sue Klages, Dawn McKeever and Sheila Swilley, were on J.V. last year. The two juniors on the team were Dawn Aultman and Lynn Truchan, and the two sophomores were Karen Kanabrocki and Liz Losole.

Despite finishing with a 3-11 conference record and a 6-18 season record, the girls were quite happy with their performance this year. During the game against Naperville Central (conference leader), the team won by one hard-fought point. As the last seconds were ticking and the Panthers were leading by one point, a shot was taken by the opposing team, and the ball went in. Fortunately, the shot was taken after the buzzer went off. Coach SuAnne Thomas had great confidence in her team and had commented that it was definitely a learning year for most of the players.

What A Great Season

A great team and a great coach led the Panther basketball team to a great season. The 1981-82 basketball season was the most exciting and successful in the history of the school. The team was led by team captains Terry Carter, Tony Lisbon, and Dan Alarcon. The Panthers won the schools first Conference Championship. They also won the Regional Championship and advanced to the Sectional finals. Tony Lisbon and Terry Carter received All-Conference, first team recognition and Dan Alarcon and Ghevel Burnside were named in Honorable Mention. The success of the team was due according to Mr. Davis, coach of the varsity basketball players, their togetherness, balance and a great attitude towards the game of basketball.

ES SECOND IN STATE

Throughout the wrestling season Glenbard North's wrestlers met with very tough competition on their way to taking second place in the State Championship. Their struggle began at the Conant Classics in which the Panthers took first place. With Glenbard North's win at 62 dual meets and placing 3rd in state last year, many people took it for granted that they would win the DuPage Valley Conference at Wheaton. Unfortunately they came in behind Wheaton North. They did much better at Districts in which they took first place. In the Districts, John Penchoff, Dave Green, Mike Green, Erick Graf and Mark Yeary placed first. At Sectionals Mike Green, Erick Graf and Tony Ruffinoa earned sectional titles. Dave Green and Mark Yeary each earned second place honors. Then came their biggest victory of all-placing second in the state. The wrestling Panthers had set two goals; one, winning every tournament and two, bringing back a trophy. One can say that they have fulfilled these goals setting a record of 21-0 and having a 62 dual meet winning streak. CONGRATULATION WRESTLERS!!!!!

1981-82 has been a very successful year for Glenbard's North's DECA Chapter, with the Chapter having one of its best showings in its history. Its members participated in various activities throughout the year, such as its second annual Anti-Shoplifting Campaign and Poster Contest, designed to increase the awareness of school-age children and that of the general public's. The campaign was held during the week of December 7-11, designated as Anti-shoplifting Week. Another activity that the members participated in, along with advisor Mr. Baker, was the Northern Illinois University DECA Competitive Workshop, held January 30. Here, students participated in a series of competitions covering a variety of skills and occupational field. Lora Frey, Veronica Ramirez, and Arthur Vasquez were NIU winners, placing in either second or third place.

The highlight of the year's activities was the DECA State Career Development Conference, held March 11-13 in Peoria, Ill. Over 1000 students and advisors were present, including Glenbard North's DECA Chapter. Here, Tammy Dolin, Vee Ramirez, Cathy Tesluk, and Sheryl Walper received recognition as DECA Ambassadors. These students are the first ones in DECA's history to successfully complete the Ambassador Program. Along with this, DECA's Anti-Shoplifting Campaign placed third in the state. The members also attended DECI (Distributive Education Clubs of Illinois) State Career Development Conference, where they competed in activities based on career goals and occupational fields. Overall competency awards were given to Lora Frey, Tim Burger, Mark Orlando, Jean Bleeden, Sheryl Walper, and Vee Ramirez. These students achieved a seventy percent or higher average in all the events they had participated in.

Mark Orlando, Veronica Ramirez, and Sheryl Walper were honored as national qualifiers for the Chapter, the second time in Glenbard North's history that a DECA member was invited to national conference. On Awards Night, various members were honored for their achievements for the past year, and Mark Orlando was named DECA Student of the Year. With all these accomplishments, members of this year's Chapter have indeed been, as Mr. Baker said, "hard working, cooperative, and a pleasure to be with."

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT

The 1981-82 year marked the 33rd Youth Legislature of the Youth and Government organization. Members of Youth and Government, an organization in which high school students in their second, third, and fourth year of school participate in youth legislational, judicial, and executive processes, convened at the State Capitol in Springfield on February 26, 27, and 28 of 1982.

Before arriving at the Capitol, Youth and Government members had several informational meetings at either Glenbard North or the Glen Ellyn Y.M.C.A. They also attended preliminary meetings called Pre-Leg I and Pre-Leg II in order to prepare for Springfield.

At the State Capitol in Springfield, youth delegations numbering over 1000 in total (including Glenbard North) began to prepare for the hectic weekend. The events occurring on this weekend included legislational sessions in the State House and Senate, judicial meetings and sessions in the State Chambers, official elections of Youth Governor, Lt. Governor, Speaker of the House, etc., late-night video programs, lobbyist presentations, numerous publications of Youth and Government newspapers, and a late night dance and rock band. The members stayed at the Holidome in Springfield and commuted back and forth from the hotel and the Capitol.

Although the Glenbard North delegation was small compared to other delegations, it was a very powerful force in Springfield. During the legislational sessions, Glenbard North took part in three bills: 1)a bill on subliminal messages, which was passed in both houses but vetoed, sponsored by Joe Chojnacki, Wuyi Chua, Kurt Nishimura, and Gina Villanueva; 2)a bill on the health hazards of an insulational and panelling material, chipwood, which was passed in both houses, sponsored by John Egan, T.J. Morrow, Renato Amador, and Pete Nguyen; and 3)a bill on the hazards of ECT (Electro-convulsive therapy), which was also passed in both houses, sponsored by Cathy Null, Kris Eighnor, Rick Gieser, Melissa Harrington, Ann Jagert, and Sue Schoonover.

In addition to these, Ann Jagert was elected as Speaker of the House and Ed Myers was elected as director of the video crew. Jacke Jackie Moore and Ann Moskal participated in judicial session, Karl Rosenbaum was a lobbyist for various bills, including the subliminal messages bill, and Kira Kaufmann participated in the press and video segment of Youth and Government Mrs. Jan Tobey and Mrs. Gail Urban were advisors for the Youth and Government program at Glenbard North.

The foreign language clubs here at Glenbard North help to acquaint students with cultures different from the one they are used to. Throughout the year, the French, German, and Spanish clubs go on restaurant field trips, participate in the Homecoming parade, and also in Northfest, where each sell food typical of their club. Not only do the members get to know one another within the club, but each also learn to appreciate what another culture can offer.

OPEN ARMS

As evidenced in previous years, the Junior-Senior Prom was always a big event for the Glenbard North student body. This year proved to be no different. The featured band, Diamonte, played until 11:00 p.m. and really kept enthusiasm alive until the very end. The Carlisle, located in Lombard, was the perfect place to hold this special occasion. The plush atmosphere set the ideal background for a very romantic evening. This year's theme and prom title was "Open Arms." Before the evening ended, Mark Yeary and Rose DeFlorio were announced King and Queen. This is one prom many well not forget, not for a long time.

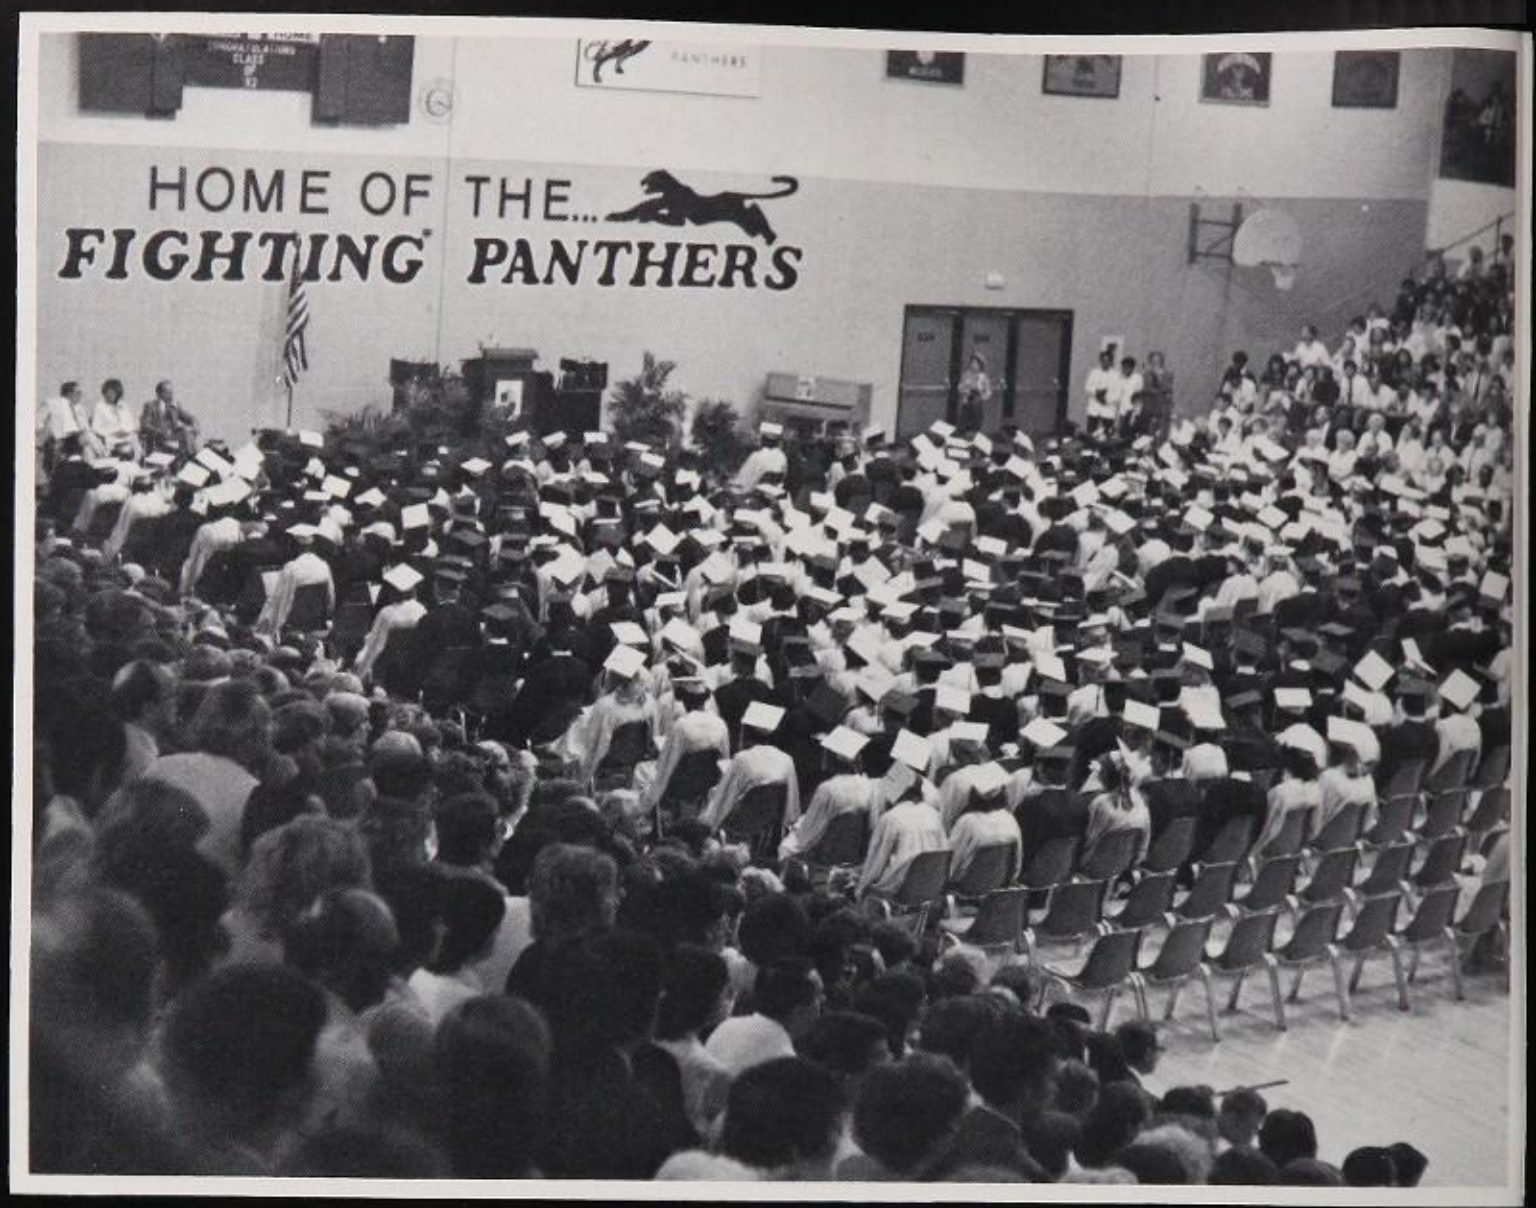
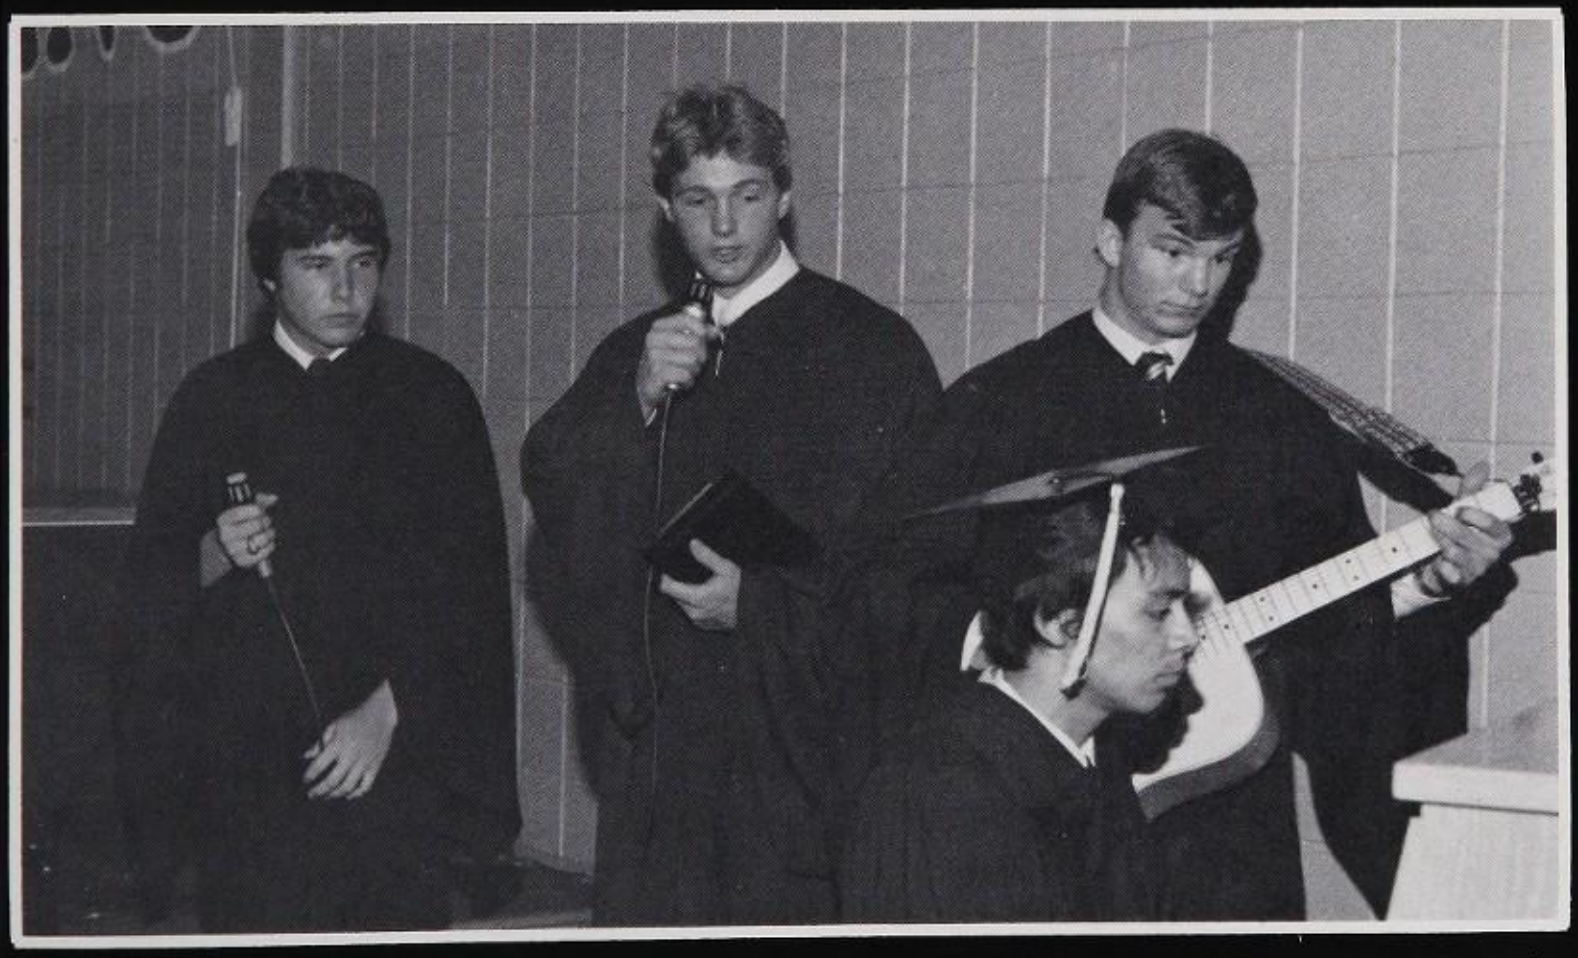
GRADUATION





For the graduating class of 1982, the commencement exercises were held on Sunday, June 13. It was a warm, sunny day when the graduates marched in to a full-packed gymnasium to participate as well as to witness the final step of their high school years.

Commencement 1982 was very well programmed. To start the program, Rose DeFlorio, class president, made a welcome speech. It was followed by the presentation of the class gift, a trophy case for the state championship trophies, by Sue Schapiro, the vice-president of the senior class.

This class was not only active in extra-curricular activities but in academic activities as well. This year's top ten were: Thomas Frew (valedictorian), Michael Peterson (salutatorian), Elonna Weigel, Kim Seidlitz, Debra Jeannie Raynor, Robert Zuberbier, Neil Kregel, Lucas Wonn, Dave Lucchesi and Jackie Moore. Bill Mitchell was selected to receive the Senior Honor medal.

Congratulations to the class of 1982! Glenbard North did lose a good class --- a dedicated class. GN would always acknowledge the pride with which it sends these graduates into a more challenging world, but for certain a more fruitful one.

Vernon,

el don't know you to well but el think ~~we~~ we can become friends. Good luck in english and everything else you do.

Love,
Laura Pedersen

Vernon,
I guess I'll sign there where all my friends have signed - Anyway - it's been fun in gym sorry if I'm dripping all over your book - thats the breaks being the ☺ I am. Thanks for brightening up my day saying hi Take care Stay sweet Love,
Tina

Vernon-
Live only know you for a little while but you have always
been a real sweetty
to me. Thanks for always passing getting me library passes
last year in Biology. Take care of yourself & stay sweet! Good luck in the years to come!
Love
Missy

Vernon,
I am not going
to write neat cause
I am falling. And if you ever kick me where
you did again. Watch out!!
Its been nice knowing
ya
Love
Janette

Vernon,
Even though
I don't know you, I hope everything goes
good for you.
Good luck!
Love,
Juli
CH

Vernon,
Good luck
next year &
the years to come. It's been great having
you in my cosm
class. Hope the future holds much
happiness for you,
Love,
Kim '85

Vernon,
you're a real nice
person. Good luck
in the things you
do. Love
Pam Slinkman
